Check In	5:45 pm
Course Walk	5:45 pm

NOTE: We'll be doing a pot luck dinner at each of these events for those who want to participate. From snacks to main courses, and store bought or home-made - we'll eat it all!

There will be no familiarization but two jumps will be set up in a practice area. All runs will be timed but not judged, and there will be a maximum run time allocated to each course.

Notice to Competitors:

This event will be run in accordance with AAC Regional rules and regulations, and you'll get to do a walkthrough of each course prior to the event starting. The purpose of this event is to practice regional level courses, however training will be allowed in the ring while you are running your dog. Participants will have the opportunity to run each course twice, with the second run offered after everyone has completed their first round. Runs will be timed but not judged, and help from spectators and handlers would be much appreciated between runs to help things run quickly 😊

NOTE: There is a fenced off-leash play area and acres of land to walk your dog during the match, however we do ask that you poop-scoop and keep your dog on a leash when outside of the agility and play rings as there are horses on the property...
